HISTORY

An all-Canadian Music Competition was held in Centennial Year (1967) with final competitions at Saint John, New Brunswick. This was funded by the National Centennial Committee in conjunction with provincial governments. The Federation of Canadian Music Festivals, founded in 1949, was primarily responsible for its organization and administration.

In 1972 the National Festival was instituted on an annual basis, with final competitions being held in early September at the Canadian National Exhibition.

In 1973, the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce became the Festival's corporate sponsor....a relationship that was appreciated for 24 years.

In 1981 it was decided that the National Festival would be held in a different province each year.

PROCEDURE

Before competing in the National Music Festival, competitors must first qualify at a Local Music Festival in the province where they live or study. In the case of chamber groups, the majority of members must study or reside in the province they wish to represent. After attaining the required standard, they must be recommended by the adjudicator(s) to proceed to the Provincial Level of competition. The winner in each class at the Provincial Level of competition, if recommended by the adjudicator, is then eligible to compete in the National Music Festival. An entry fee of $125.00 per person is required at the National Level for live performances, and $100.00 per entry for those competing in choral classes by CD or audio DVD.

The following classes are offered at the National Music Festival:

SOLO: Class 1 - Vocal Solo; Class 2 - Piano Solo; Class 3 - String Solo; Class 4 - Classical Guitar Solo; Class 5 - Woodwind Solo; Class 6 - Brass Solo; Class 7 - Percussion Solo (new in 2010).

GENERAL REGULATIONS
Classes 1 through 8

1. It is the responsibility of each competitor to read and comply with the rules and regulations governing the National Music Festival, including the Concept (page 4) and Code of Conduct (page 16) as set out in competition guidelines. If clarification or assistance is needed, competitors should contact their Provincial Administrator or the Executive Director of the Federation of Canadian Music Festivals.
2. The National Music Festival shall be open to non-professional musicians who are:
i) Canadian citizens, or ii) living or studying in Canada, who perform at festivals affiliated through Provincial Music Festival Associations.
3. A non-professional musician shall be defined as a person whose principal means of livelihood is not obtained from the performance of music in the particular category in which he or she is competing. This stipulation does not, however, preclude such a person having occasionally received remuneration for musical services rendered, even in the area in which he or she is competing. The competitor's signature will be required on a national form confirming non-professional status. It is recommended that local festivals also have competitors verify by signature their non-professional status.
4. Competitors in all Classes shall not be over the age of 28 on December 31 prior to the National Festival. Local Festivals must obtain proof of age.
5. Competitors are prohibited from being in contact with the adjudicators until competitions are completed.
6. A high standard of music selection is expected at each level - Local Festival, Provincial Festival and National Festival. Selections must be of advanced difficulty and should include at least one large-scale work.
7. All copyrights must be observed. Competitors must provide original scores of music, containing solo and accompaniment in the proper key, for the adjudicator. The accompanist must have an original score on the piano, and members of chamber groups must perform from original parts. Failure to do so automatically disqualifies the competitor. As an aid to the adjudicators, competitors must number the first bar of each line in their scores.
8. Memorization requirements for the National Music Festival: Classes 1 through 6 - Memory work is mandatory; Class 7 - All works for solo percussion instruments must be memorized. For multi-instrument works, memorization is encouraged but not required; Class 8 - Memorization is not required.
9. A written recommendation from the adjudicator will be necessary before any competitor may advance from the Local Festival to the Provincial Festival and from the Provincial Festival to the National Festival. The recommendation form from the Provincial Festival to the National Festival must be signed by the competitor, signifying knowledge of and agreement with the General Regulations.
10. In solo classes, if a competitor returns to the National Festival, and in the Chamber Group class, if more than one member returns, no repetition of music will be allowed.
11. Solo competitors may enter the National Music Festival classes in local festivals - only in the province in which they live or study, and may be recommended to the Provincial Festival by only one festival in that province. No competitor may represent more than one province at the National Music Festival.

12. The majority of members in a chamber group must reside or study in the province they represent. The majority (50% or more) must consist of new members who have not participated in a first-place chamber group at the National Festival for the last three years.
13. A first-place winner in Classes 1 through 8 at the National Festival shall not be eligible to compete in the same class at succeeding National Music Festivals in the following 3 festival years. Winners of the Grand Award are not eligible to compete again in the same class.
14. There shall be no non-sanctioned recording or photographing of competitors during performances.
15. First, second and third placements shall be awarded at the discretion of the adjudicators.
16. The President of the Federation of Canadian Music Festivals shall be the final authority in all matters pertaining to the National Music Festival.

REGULATIONS FOR LOCAL FESTIVALS

1. The maximum number of competitors recommended from each local festival to compete at the Provincial Festival in National Festival classes 1 through 8 inclusive shall be determined by the Provincial Association. The decision of a Provincial Association shall apply equally to all local festivals in that province. (Note: To be eligible for the National Festival competition, a competitor must obtain a minimum mark of 85 in the appropriate classes at the local festival.)
2. Local Festivals will be advised in due course regarding time and place of the Provincial Festival of competition in their respective areas.

REGULATIONS FOR PROVINCIAL FESTIVALS

1. Winners in classes at local festivals pertaining to the National Music Festival Classes 1 through 8 are eligible to compete at the Provincial Festival, upon the recommendation of the adjudicator.
2. Competitors shall be responsible for providing their own accompanists. Accompaniment is restricted to one piano in Classes 1 – 7.
3. No marks shall be given but the winner in each class at the Provincial Level of competition, if recommended by the adjudicator, is then eligible to compete in the National Music Festival. Alternates may be recommended at the discretion of the adjudicator should a satisfactory standard be attained.

REGULATIONS FOR THE NATIONAL MUSIC FESTIVAL

1. Should a satisfactory standard be attained, the adjudicator at the Provincial Festival may recommend a winner in each of Classes 1 through 8 to proceed to the National Music Festival.
2. If a competitor who has been recommended to participate in the National Music Festival is unable to do so, an alternate shall be eligible to compete (see Provincial Regulation #3). Should a regular member of a Chamber Group be unable to proceed to the National Music Festival, with the approval of the Executive Committee of FCMF, one substitution will be permitted.

3. All competitors proceeding to the National Music Festival will be provided with meals and living accommodations; travel costs to be provided only if funds are available. All competitors must stay in the assigned accommodation from the evening of the competitor briefing through to the Grand Award Competition. If clarification is necessary, competitors should contact the Provincial Administrator or the Executive Director of the Federation of Canadian Music Festivals.
4. The names of official accompanists for the National Festival will be given to competitors only if requested. Contact with, and payment for official accompanists is the responsibility of the competitor requiring this service. Competitors are encouraged to bring their own accompanists, keeping in mind that all professional, travel and living expenses of personal accompanists must be borne by the competitor and/or the accompanist. Accompaniment is restricted to one instrument, which shall be the piano
5. Arrangements will be made for competitors to practise at the National Music Festival. In addition, competitors will be allowed official rehearsal time in the hall in which they will perform.
6. Performance adjudications and masterclasses will be given following the conclusion of competitions.
7. All competitors must attend the Grand Award Competition in formal attire (refer to Code of Conduct), and first-place winners in Classes 1 through 8 are required to perform.
8. Adjudicator recommendation forms of Provincial winners (and alternates, if any) for the National Festival must be submitted to the Executive Director of the Federation of Canadian Music Festivals within two weeks of the close of the provincial festival and not later than July 1 of the current festival year.
9. All information forms from Provincial winners and alternates for the National Festival must be submitted to the Executive Director within two weeks of the close of the provincial festival and not later than July 1 of the current festival year. The National Music Festival Committee reserves the right to contact the alternate if forms from a Provincial winner are not received before the deadline. This action would, of course, disqualify the Provincial winner from competition.
10. All equipment (except pianos for Classes 1-8 and a basic percussion kit for Class 7) is the sole responsibility of the performer.
11. Competitors are required to be in attendance at the National Music Festival for the Official Briefing through to the conclusion of the Grand Award Competition.
